Unsacrifice is set in an undefined era, in a dark and hostile world mixing different ancient cultures aesthetics. The world is full of mysteries, hidden dangers and deformed creatures the player has to escape from. The unique artstyle is something we put a lot of effort on. We wanted to create beautiful environments that, at the same time, terrifies the player with gore elements placed all over them.

It is this kind of duality we wanted to showcase in our game. There's always two sides in everything, and the player is in the middle, being forced to decide to be able to go forward.

Concede your humanity, or sacrifice it to survive.

The screenshot shows a game interface with a central 4x6 grid of question marks. On the left side, there are three player avatars: Red Bot (a red character with yellow leaves), Purple Hank (a purple character), and Green Hand (a green character). On the right side, there are three more player avatars: Yellow Ready (a yellow character), Orange End (an orange character), and Blue Lucky (a blue character with a mustache). Each avatar has a score and a health indicator. At the bottom center, there is a chat log with the following text:

00:21 3|€ GREEN HAND DIDN'T FIND A MATCH.
 00:22 3|€ IT'S NOW YELLOW READY'S TURN.
 00:24 3|€ YELLOW READY FOUND A MATCH.
 00:25 3|€ YELLOW READY LANDED THE FIRST HIT ON RED BOT. --- 300 POINTS.
